

NEIGHBORING EXCHANGES.
Albion Gazette:
The Republicans of the Twenty-fifth senatorial district are going to have a lively fight. Clay county has eight delegates in the nominating convention. Dickinson county has eight. Each county has a candidate, Clay with Harkness and Stratton, Dickinson with the venerable Dr. Hedge, and probably Col. J. M. Fisher. Democrats will view the lively battle for the nomination from the grand stand.

World's Congress:
We notice that our state exchanges are very anxious about the whereabouts of Boston Corbett. We traveled on the train with him from Wilson to Beloit, and he made all the arrangements to stand off and allow the fire with his wife. Boston is a little man, but he knows how to stir up the wildcats when he gets started.

Bassel Journal:
Since the resignation of Mr. Shaffer, there have been many suggestions as to what ought to be done under the circumstances. Without considering the wisdom, or unwise of Mr. Shaffer's unexplained action, it is apparent that another nomination must be made. How much time is available is not known, what many daily papers, but there is no denying this fact; that the people must speak. To permit the judicial committee to name the party's nominee, would to say the least, be a most disastrous view of the long time which is before us. Were the time limited so that it would be impossible to call primaries prior to the election, the committee might then be looked to for the nomination. We are in favor of conventions being held in each county, and the people electing delegates thereto, as primaries, as is the usual custom. In view of rumors which have passed current in the past few weeks, it is emphatically demanded by the people that every opportunity be given to stand and be represented, and that "ringers" and "bouncers" be relegated to the rear.

Manhattan Nationalist:
Albert Patterson has returned from his operatic tour over the country. He just from Manhattan where he received fees, and will be in the field again next season, with Kate Rosenberg, of another strong company. Mr. Patterson leave for New York in a day or two.

Bill & Burnham, who have long before been known as proprietors of Glenwood Stock Farm, and the well known racing team, will be in the field again next season, with Kate Rosenberg, of another strong company. Mr. Patterson leaves for New York in a day or two.

Solomon Valley Democrat:
Mr. S. W. Collins has 200 acres of wheat which promises an average yield of 25 bushels per acre.

Atchison Champion:
Hon. T. E. FAULKNER, of Salina, Secretary of the Board of Trustees of the State Charitable Institutions, has been selected as superintendent of the Soldiers' Orphans' Home, of this city, to take charge August first. Mr. Faulkner is a gentleman of rare executive ability, a courteous, affable kind hearted man, who, we believe, will give this important institution an administration which will command its the fullest confidence and support of the people of the State, and under whose care it will rapidly rise to the prominence its character deserves. Other charitable organizations, the Home, the Board of Trustees, and will interested upon this excellent appointment.

Dr. James McHenry:
Dr. James McHenry has had a stroke of paralysis the past week, and suffered very much. He will take a trip to his old home in Illinois, where the change, we hope, to regain his former self.

Lincoln Center Republican:
Any one thinking that clover will not grow in Lincoln county should see a fine field growing on the farm of Mr. Berry, near Allamend, and he convinced to the contrary. A part of this field has been mown over this season and is now ready for sowing.

The Lincoln creamery is now receiving nearly 14,000 pounds of milk daily or in other words this institution is distributing nearly $100 each day among its patrons.

Three thousand teams are at work on the Lincoln extension of the U.P., road, and the new railroad will be the report that reaches this section through the U.P. people.

Manhattan Mercury:
Col. Anderson has donated about half the books so far given for the Anderson memorial library in Emporia.

Solomon Standard:
Rev. J. H. Lockwood of Salina, presiding elder of this district, conducted services at the funeral of Col. Anderson, while east recently attending the Methodist conference in New York, he visited Washington and Richmond, Va., while viewing all the places of interest in the last named place, including the state capital, he found the products of commerce, Finsburgh Law, so frankly admitted having won the blue during the late war, yet found the governor both pleasant and affable, as indeed were all with whom he came in contact. The visitor was pleased to note the kind feelings expressed by many for General Grant's acts of kindness in allowing the officers and men of North Virginia under General Lee to retain their side arms and also their horses and make useable them to cultivate their lands.

The elder is looking very much better for his trip, but returns fully satisfied with Kansas as a home.

Ellsworth Republican:
Rev. A. N. See, delivered a fine sermon at the M. E. church in this city last Sunday.

McLennan says he will make $10,000 on his 300 head of cattle that he has sold.

It is the principal gambling hell has been sold to a man from Salina, and that it is to be a little more dignified by being run on the "quiet."

Junction City Tribune:

We are sorry to hear of the death of Mrs. Gen. Forsythe, of Ft. Riley, on last Monday. Mrs. Forsythe was a daughter of George Dyer, of Ohio. The remains were sent east for burial. The mother leaves three daughters and one son to mourn their sad loss; the youngest about ten years old.

Wednesday Democrat:

Wednesday afternoon the bar of the city met at the office of Attorney Brooks, and proceeded to pass resolutions, etc. L. C. Conkling is a candidate for Judge on the Republican ticket with Garver, of Salina, as second choice. They, Sternberg and S. P. Harrison were the only members of the bar who did not participate in the meeting.

It is announced that after settling all out-standing debts the estate of the late Romeo Conkling will amount to between $700,000 and $800,000. This sum will be left after deducting about seven years' expense of attorney on the part of Mr. Conkling to his legal practice. During this time he paid off a security indebtedness of $100,000. His will, which was made about twenty years ago, left his entire fortune to his wife, Mrs. Conkling. Of late years had received some of the largest fees ever paid a lawyer in this or any other country.

H. M. Curry & Co., druggists, have secured the agency of the L. C. Brand of spectacles and eye glasses. These glasses are different from ordinary spectacles in that the lenses are ground from a French tinted crystal, intended to shut out the chemical or heat rays of light, making them very soothing and pleasant to the eyes. Be sure and try them. Price $2. See that the brand "L. C." is on every lens.
